Subject: slap

This is the message where Kevin admitted to slapping you on the arm in the car.

Janet....I have never hit Julia, she has punched me in the face on multiple occasions, but I guess that's ok though because she is a woman and I am a man. Slapping somebody on the back of the hand to stop them from breaking their own car is not abusing. I am not claiming to be perfect but don't talk about like I'm some kind of woman batterer, please

Kevin,
(abusive behavior) is not limited to hitting only It also includes shoving, restraining, grabbing, threatening, name calling, yelling, punching, slapping, throwing items, rage, name calling, verbal abuse etc.
There is a difference between being the aggressor and defending yourself.
You were not defending yourself when you chose to slap her. You in fact were being abusive. You do not have the right to do that.
In one small paragraph you claimed you have never hit her then you go on and try to justify why you did in fact hit her.
A person who tries to justify their abusive behavior is in denial.
You can't fix a problem that you deny exists.

Hi Julia,

You probably are upset
i didn't come over toni earlier i left my car at 408 &
(6:15ish) home & to Stage 212 bcuz i am Playing guitar for the pit band of
'Rent' the musical at stage 212, tonight was the first one i had to be at, show time is 8. Days away. It's a volunteer gig but that's ok sometimes.
After rehearsal i went home, did dishes
ate, and biked back to 408 to re-record
the final song for my new album!!
Then i saw your note & decided to write you one.

Thanks for doing your best to be a good, caring mom to Madeline.

I also was working at Starved Rock
this morning, and teaching music
all day.

+ Kevin

CPI spoke to Juvenile State's attorney Vicki Denny and State's Attorney Greg Sticka. Greg reports Peru Police has given him reports that the mother has made. Peru Police sent information regarding the mother making false reports. Greg reports child sex abuse needs to be taken seriously and it is hard to prove a false report. Even if a PRC is negative it does not mean abuse did not occur. It is a he said/she said issue and the mom is saying the child is making an outcry. He is uncomfortable saying this is false reporting and is not pursuing charges. He has filed misdemeanor charges for the battery and court is June 1. Vicky indicates there is not immediate and urgent necessity for protective custody due to new reports being made. And she can not act on anticipatory that mom may harm the child.

A. No.

MS. EICKMEIER: Am I allowed to counter question?

THE COURT: You will get to ask him some questions. Yes, ma'am.

BY MR. STEELE:

Q. She alleges you threw baby powder at Madeline. What was that about?

A. That story was exaggerated. Because what happened was I went to the store and bought the baby powder; and I walked home into the kitchen. Julia was also standing in the kitchen. I threw the baby powder to Julia underhanded. And she avoided catching it, so it went into the room where Madeline was at.

Q. Did you have any intent to harm your child in any way?

A. No.

Q. You two have frequently argued in the past?

A. I wouldn't say frequently; but we have argued, yeah.

JULIA ON THE PHONE INQUIRING IF IT IS CONSIDERED BATTERY IF SOMEONE "HITS YOUR HAND OR ARM OR SOMETHING LIKE THAT" BECAUSE THAT IS IN THEIR NATURE. I ASKED WHERE JULIA WAS AND IF SHE WAS WITH KEVIN AND SHE STATED THEY WERE AT WASHINGTON PARK, PARKED BY THE PARKVIEW TAP PARKING LOT, AND THAT KEVIN WAS STILL THERE. SHE STATED THAT SHE DIDN'T HAVE ANY BRUISES OR ANYTHING, SHE JUST WANTED TO KNOW.
 INFORMATION
JULIA CALLED ON THE NON EMERGENCY LINE AT 1620 HRS. INQUIRING ABOUT GETTING AN ORDER OF PROTECTION. SHE STATED THAT HER PROPERTY HAS BEEN DISRESPECTED AND PEOPLE KNOW WHERE I LIVE AND ARE OUT TO GET ME. VENGEANCE...YA KNOW. SHE WAS ADVISED THAT WE DO NOT ISSUE ORDERS OF PROTECTION AND SHE NEEDED TO CALL THE LASALLE COUNTY STATED ATTORNEYS OFFICE. SHE STATED THAT SHE WAS JUST CONCERNED ABOUT HER PROPERTY.

I, Officer Credi, along with Officer Atkins and Sgt. Raymond responded to Washington Park. We arrived and found Julia in the back of the car trying to buckle their daughter into a car seat. Kevin was standing outside the car. I asked what was going on and was told by Julia that Kevin slapped her on the arm in front of her daughter. Kevin immediately denied this, stating Julia was trying to shut off the On-Star to quiet it, and he never touched her arm. I asked Julia if she had any marks on her arm and she stated "well no. I just wanted to know what could be done." I advised her I would not be taking a complaint and that the incident would be documented and she could go to the station to fill out a statement if she wished. I then found out the two of them agreed to meet so their daughter could ride her tricycle while they "worked things out." They were also planning on going to a restaurant afterward. Kevin then stated he was not going anywhere with her now that she called the police. I asked who right now was supposed to have Madeline per the court order and was told Kevin until 6 pm. Kevin took Madeline and left, stating he would return her at 6pm.

A short while later Julia came to the police department and filled out a voluntary statement about the incident. Sgt. Raymond spoke in length to her about not following the court ordered visitation to wish Julia continued arguing she was acting in the best interest of her daughter. Julia was advised the incident was being documented. Credi/P12

Eickmeier called the station and wished to speak with an officer about Kramer harassing her. I responded outside to the west parking lot, spoke with Eickmeier and she stated Kramer dropped their child off to her a little while ago. Eickmeier stated she continued to sit in her vehicle as she was going over police reports that she just received. Eickmeier stated Kramer left and then came back and asked her if there was a problem because she as still sitting there and she said no. Kramer then began walking as if her was going to go into the police station and tell on her. She stated she lost sight of Kramer and does not know where he is now.

- continued

I advised Eickmeier it would be best if she parked closer to the police department rather than over by the gas station and if need be to exchange inside the police station. I advised her I would document what she had stated.

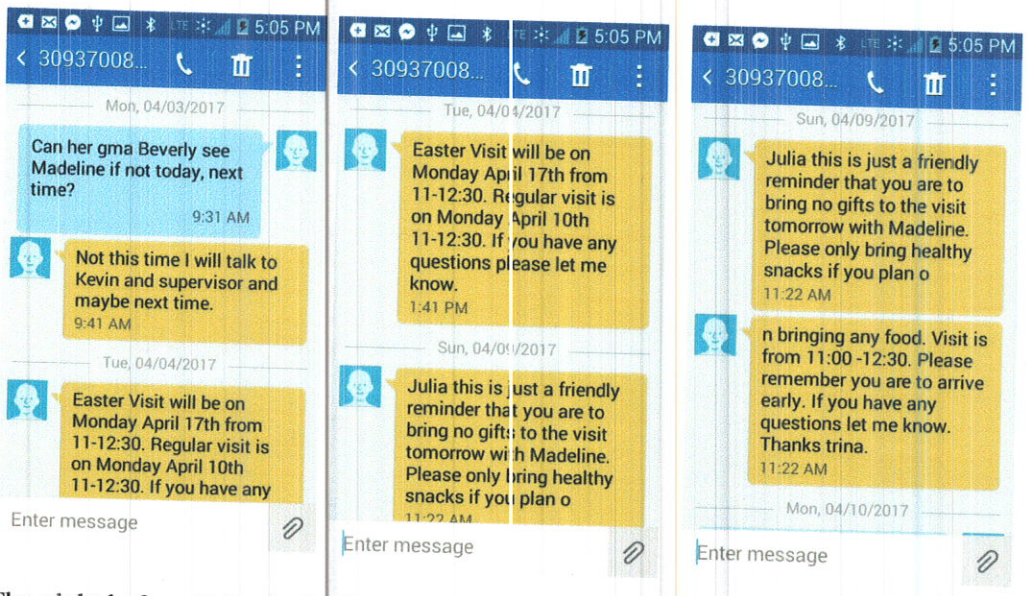
Hope House Visitation

04/10/2017



The night before, Trina had told me the night before to healthy snacks to the visit.

As I am getting out of my car to go inside, the side door or the building swings open, and out walks some lady. She starts screaming at me saying that I was told not to bring gifts. She had a very hostile domineer and it made me feel defensive. She had this hostility like she was very aggressive and threatening. She was so hostile that I felt threatened. She was being totally unprofessional. I explained to her that I got a text the night before from the other worker telling me to bring healthy snacks but the lady who walked outside and started yelling at me wouldn't let me talk She just kept saying No! NO! and acting ghetto, while pointing her finger and yelling very aggressively. She kept repeating herself and yelled at me saying that I was told not to bring gifts. She was not letting me talk. She was very angry and hostile. I told her that if this was the way that I was going to be treated, that I was just going to go home. She angrily said she would mark it down. I tried letting bygones be bygones, walked inside to continue on with the visitation after putting my stuff in the car like the lady yelled at me for. I asked her what her name was and she said Regina (I can't remember the last name. Before I left, when talking to the desk lady about talking to the director, the lady explained to me that the woman, Regina's last name is Riley, but when she told me outside, she gave me a different last name.)

I enter the visitation room where Madeline was sitting with Trina Fundson. Before even getting to see my daughter, Regina the angry supervisor barged in the room and sat on the chair to the left of me. She appeared to be very frazzled. She began telling me in an angry almost threatening voice" And Just do you know from now on, I will be sitting in on these visitations." In a threatening way, in front of my child she was still appearing aggressive. She said I tried to slip a craft home that she made there with her last time. It made me feel very uncomfortable that she aggressively approached me immediately upon getting out of my vehicle and the fact that she continued being aggressive even when in the visitation room next to my child. She apparently has a vendetta against me. I did not feel comfortably letting the situation be in a lady's hands who seems to be out of control and angry at me. I believe she should cool it down on the rage a bit as it is to be a serene, not hostile and aggressive place for supervised visits. It concerned me that they were painting me to be a bad guy for bringing crafts to the last visitation for us to do there, like Julie the original supervisor had told me was according to plan that I was able to do. They seemed more concerned with me bringing crafts then the child potentially being abused by the father. The original supervisor Julie had saw some sexual behaviors from Madeline suggesting that she may have been sexually abused, rubbing her genitals, humping toys etc. She expressed to me that she would convey this to her supervisor and see if the supervisor could sit in on a visit to see the behavior and go from there, but the matter was never addressed. I believe they are partial to Kevin and they didn't address that matter because it would be something bad against Kevin. Instead of considering that matter, they fired Julie, the one who mentioned the issue and hired Trina, and took the toys out of the room that Madeline was humping. They then decide to get a supervisor to monitor because Trina Fundson claims I tried to send a craft toy home with Madeline, as if I am the bad guy. I personally think signs of sexual abuse outweigh a craft being sent home with a child and disagree with their methods of professionalism. I expressed to Trina that I felt there was some miscommunication issues and that I was not being treated so that I would have to cut the visit short today. I asked her if she could call Kevin. As there was a hostile environment and unprofessionalism, I felt it was best for me to leave. The place had pictures of sperm lings ono the door for crying out loud and the coupled with the hostile behavior I really feel uncomfortable with the place all together and decided to address the matter asap. I emailed Frank Vogn the director of the hope house when I got home. They shouldn't have such aggressive and unprofessional people working at the sacred "safe-haven" for children. It seems entirely inappropriate. With her hostility and threats, I did not feel that she should be a monitor. It seems to me that the place should provide a safety against anger and hostility from abusive environments, not have angst or hostility coming from the workers of the place.
